Oregon College of Art and Craft OFF CAMPUS HOUSING INFO

To help you explore some current housing options in Portland, information on apartments nearby and some rental agencies is provided below. The first listings are for apartment complexes that are near campus starting with those across the street and a little further away, but still easily accessible by bus. The best way to compare these housing options is to start on-line and then call and/or email specific apartments with any questions you might have.

If you would like to room with other new students, fill-out the “Housing Needed Form” online at www.ocac.edu/housing_needed; OCAC can connect you with others who are also exploring this option.
